In terms of data control falling under Section 3.2. by signing this Confirmation Form, you grant permission to the Consortium and to each Consortium university to manage your personal data, according to legal provisions applicable in the countries of the Consortium university.

Access to such data will be granted to authorized Consortium university personnel only. The Consortium shall protect students' personal data from illegal access, alteration, transferring, publication, cancellation or annihilation in accordance with applicable legal regulations. Personal data may be transmitted electronically via the Internet or other IT/CT equipment, in which case action will be taken to ensure adequate protection.

9.7 Rights you are entitled to regarding the data control

9.7.1 Right for information

You as data subject may request information on the management of your data. You as data subject may request information primary at the following addresses:

CEU: coordinator@mespom.eu

LU: msc.program@iiiee.lu.se

UAegean: secr-env@aegean.gr

UoM: earth.support@manchester.ac.uk

Pursuant to the request of You as data subject, the Consortium universities are obliged to provide information on your data that they control, as well as the data processed by the data processor(s) they contracted, their sources, the objective of the control, its legal grounds and duration, the name and address of the data processor(s) and the activities they undertake in connection with control, in addition to the legal grounds and recipients should the personal data of You as data subject not be transferred. The Consortium universities shall provide clear information in writing within the shortest possible space of time following the submission of the request; however, no later than within 30 days from the receipt of such request. Information is provided free of charge, if the individual requesting the information has not yet submitted a request for information to the controller in connection with the same scope of data in the same year. In other cases, costs may be charged. Reimbursed costs that have already been paid must be reimbursed in the event that the data was illegitimately controlled, or the request for information leads to correction.

The Consortium universities are only entitled to deny a request for information if it is permitted by law. The Consortium universities must notify You as data subject about the grounds on which the request for information was denied. In this case, the Consortium universities must inform You as data subject of the means available to facilitate legal redress.

9.7.2 Right for correction

You as data subject may request the Consortium universities to correct your personal data recorded incorrectly, provided that You as data subject at the same time provide the Consortium universities with the correct personal data. The Consortium universities shall fulfil your request for correction within 30 days from the receipt of your request and inform You thereon.

9.7.3 Right for blocking, deletion and objection

Except for data management ordered by law (as in Section 3.1.), You as data subject may request the blocking or deletion of your personal data. The Consortium universities inform You as data subject about the blocking or deletion. The Consortium universities may refuse the blocking or deletion of personal data if the data management is based on law, and the data management is required for the legitimate interests pursued by the Consortium universities. In case of refusal for blocking or deletion, the Consortium universities shall inform You as data subject about the reason of such refusal including information on the remedies available.

Pursuant to the relevant legal regulations You as data subject may object the control of your personal data.

9.7.4 Enforcement of your rights as data subject

You as data subject may submit your request for information, correction, and deletion to any of the following addresses:

CEU: Nádor utca 9, 1051 Budapest, Hungary, coordinator@mespom.eu

In case of information, correction, deletion, objection the Consortium universities act in accordance with the applicable legislations. In case of infringement You as data subject may request the investigation of the superior of the person acting on behalf of the Consortium universities, and may contact the internal data protection officer appointed at the controller.

In case of violation of rights, You as data subject may turn to court and enforce your rights under the applicable legal regulations.

You as data subject may turn to the relevant national authority in case of violation of your right for protection of personal data, and request the inspection of the relevant national authority.

The Consortium universities can be held liable for any damage caused as an outcome of the illegitimate control of the data that has been proven as it is prescribed in the applicable laws.

The Consortium universities shall be obliged to compensate for damages caused to You as data subject as an outcome of the illegitimate control of your data or a breach of data security requirements. The Consortium universities are also responsible for any damage caused by the data processor to You as data subject. The Consortium universities shall be exempt from liability should it be able to prove that the damages were caused by circumstances beyond its immediate control. Damages do not need to be compensated should they have ensued from the deliberate or serious negligence of the aggrieved party.

9.8 Camera surveillance

The Consortium universities may operate camera surveillance systems on their premises. By signing this Student Agreement you acknowledge that your image and/or voice may be recorded at these premises for property security and safeguarding purposes.

9.9 Consent for the Use of Anti-plagiarism Software

By accepting this Offer, the student hereby gives permission to the University to check the originality and authenticity of theses, exam papers and other written assignments submitted during, or subsequent to, courses taken, through the use of anti-plagiarism software services. For this purpose, the university may submit (upload) an electronic copy of the written work. Students retain copyright to all written work produced in the course of their enrollment at CEU.

9.10 Public Information

CEU reserves the right to publish the student's name, country of origin and field(s) of study on the CEU departmental web pages and in selected university printed materials, i.e. the graduation ceremony program. By accepting this Student Agreement, you authorize CEU to keep and publish the following data on CEU website(s) and any printed materials: your name, country of origin, area(s) or field(s) of study, and title of master's theses and/or other significant research papers. In addition, the Master's theses may be made publicly available through the websites of the universities you will be enrolled at. The publication of MA theses and doctoral dissertations is regulated by the relevant clauses of the CEU Student Rights, Rules and Academic Regulations and Doctoral Regulations.

10. Participation in E+ and EMJMD activities

For the purposes of monitoring, evaluation and improvement of the E+/Erasmus Mundus programme and MESPOM operation, the student is expected to participate in mandatory evaluations/surveys conducted by the MESPOM Consortium and/or the European Commission (including the European Agency for Culture, Education and Audiovisual). The students are also strongly encouraged to join the Erasmus Mundus Students and Alumni Association (EMA) (<http://www.em-a.eu/>).

11. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

Any questions not governed by this agreement, except educational ones, shall be resolved pursuant to the applicable Hungarian legislation, and in particular pursuant to the Hungarian Civil Code (Act V of 2013). The parties agree that all disputes arising from, or in connection with, the present agreement, its breach, termination, validity or interpretation, shall be decided by, and all claims concerning this agreement will belong to, the exclusive jurisdiction and authority – depending on the value in question - of the Buda Central District Court, according to the Civil Procedure Code of Hungary.

PLEASE NOTE THAT IN CASE LEGAL REGULATIONS CHANGE, THE CONDITIONS OF YOUR ADMISSION AS INDICATED IN THE PRESENT STUDENT AGREEMENT MAY VARY. CEU RESERVES THE RIGHT TO UNILATERALLY MODIFY SUCH CONDITIONS IN ORDER TO COMPLY WITH THE APPLICABLE LAWS BY NOTIFYING THE STUDENT THEREOF.

12. Non-Discrimination Policy

Central European University does not discriminate on the basis of - including, but not limited to - race, color, national and ethnic origin, religion, gender or sexual orientation in administering its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

Please go on to the next page to indicate your acceptance of the terms and conditions of this offer.

13. Confirmation of Place of Study

By signing below, I verify that I have read and understood the terms and conditions outlined in the Student Agreement.

I hereby declare that I have read and understood CEU's Personal Data Protection Policy¹. I hereby give my explicit consent to CEU to manage my personal data for marketing and statistical purposes for 5 years, in line with the applicable US and Hungarian legal provisions.

I hereby accept the offer of a place of study in the MESPOM Consortium's Master's of Environmental Sciences, Policy and Management for the 2018/2019 and 2019/2020 academic years under the terms and conditions outlined in this Student Agreement.
